MAY 28, 1985 - by VIRGINIA ARRAL

NEW REGULATIONS FOR SANITARY LANDFILL

Following a public hearing held recently the Board of Health compiled new rules and regulations for the operation of the sanitary landfill. They were presented to the Board of Selectmen last Tuesday by members Daniel C. Lee and Evelyn A. Ellis. The rules will become effective July 1st unless there is reason to change them because of Town Counsel's opinion on any legal question.

The rules are as follows:

1. All resident stickers will cost $1.00 per sticker for two years. There is no change in this regulation.

2. Common Refuse Haulers (Packers) will be charged $100.00 per year for a permit. There is no charge at this time.

3. Stumps, tires and rocks PERMITTED. (This subject was discussed with the possibility of looking next year at having tires taken somewhere to be cut up and disposed of elsewhere.

4. Any demolition-material from land clearing, etc. (with three or more loads from MATTAPOISETT) will be pushed back by the end of the week, by the contractor. (This will include such big projects as from large buildings.)

5. NO OUT OF TOWN MATERIAL WILL BE DUMPED. (Penalties for this offense will be discussed with town counsel.)

6. Out-of-town contractors MUST obtain a permit from the Mattapoisett Town Hall to do Mattapoisett work. The permit fee is $5.00 for two weeks.

7. If any material is deposited at the Mattapoisett landfill from out-of-town, by anyone, a fine may be imposed.

8. The Mattapoisett Board of Health will maintain a container to be used at the landfill for the deposit of waste oil.

9. All vehicles entering the Mattapoisett landfill MUST have a sticker/permit attached or WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO UNLOAD.

10. These rules and regulations will be

ule for boat owners to be collected in lieu of current excise taxes:

Selectmen John DeCosta, James Huntoon and Frank Suzan expressed concern that the assessment would take place on January 1 and be collected where the boat is loated on that date. They decided to notify MacLean they prefer July 1st when more boats will be located in Mattapoisett. "Why should other towns collect the taxes when Mattapoisett has the boats using our services more months of the year," said Huntoon.

MET BRIEFLY with William Matthews of the town Planning Board to discuss the 20 hours of time available to his board of services from SRPEDD. Matthews said his board would like to have a new Master Plan looked at for the town. He said he would like the viewpoint of the Selectmen and that of other town departments.

A tentative date of June 18 was set for a joint meeting to pool ideas from all departments with the Planning Board.

VOTED to employ Ronald Scott to replace the iron rails on the bandstand at Shipyard Park at a cost of $3,860. Chairman DeCosta noted that as the cost is under the $4,000 limit it is not necessary for the town to invite bids.

RECEIVED A REPLY from Old Rochester Regional School Superintendent Joan Walsh to a question from the board. She stated that the last full financial audit for the ORR District was completed on June 30, 1981. It was noted the Bureau of Accounts conduct these audits on a two year basis; however, no explanation was given as to why no audit was done in 1983.

ACTIVITIES PLANNED

At the May meeting of the Rochester Senior Citizens Club members enjoyed a very informative program on the benefits of the AARP given by Mrs. G. Simon. A new chapter is in the planning stages which will include Marion, Mattapoisett and Wareham. Mrs. Simon asked the members if they would like to be a part of that Chapter. Some of the members said that they would.

Refreshments were served and Maybaskets made by the following committee members were filled to be distributed to the shut-ins in Rochester: Dorothy Alderson, Annie Gurney, Dorothy Tuttle, Gladys Crocker, Edith Lizotte, Alice Hartley, Louise Watling, and Margaret Doane.

The annual picnic is to be held on July 15th with a rain date of July 17th, at the home of Margaret Santos. Members are asked to bring items for the auction. A chicken dinner will be served. Also, members are asked to bring their own chairs.

On May 20th a trip to The Steakhouse in Saugus and a visit to the Kennedy Library were enjoyed. June 24th will find the club traveling to Easthill Farms in Troy, New Hampshire for a Chicken Barbecue. The bus will leave Rochester Congregational Church at 8:00 a.m.

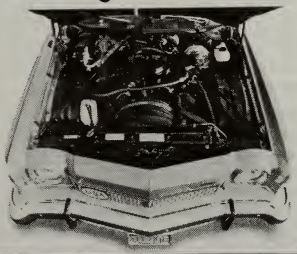
Advanced Cooling System Maintenance



There's more to your car's cooling system than meets the eye. In fact, the inner-workings of your engine and automatic transmission depend on proper cooling.

A dirty cooling system will allow deposits to accumulate in the crankcase. This build-up of deposits can result in costly repairs.

But you can help avoid this expense and inconvenience with WYNN'S X-TEND Power-Flush and WYNN'S X-TEND Cooling System products. A new approach to cleaning and maintaining your automobile's entire cooling system while helping to maximize cooling system efficiency.

WYNN'S X-TEND Power-Flush unit uses pressurized water and air to flush the cooling system — including even those hard-to-reach areas.

CAPITAL FUND DRIVE IN TROUBLE

In spite of an encouraging start thanks to the generosity of a few public-spirited residents, the response to the fund drive to pay for the new addition to the Carriage House and Museum of the Mattapoisett Historical Society has been far less than expected. Although reported at length in this paper, many citizens are apparently unaware of the program or have just put off making their much needed contribution.

The Museum is located on Church Street in the old meeting house built in 1821. Some years ago the Carriage House addition was built by the Society. The Museum houses an excellent collection of memorabilia from the shipbuilding period of the Town as well as personal and professional items tracing the entire period of the Town's existence. The Carriage House contains a fine collection of farm and home implements dating from the early 18th century.

The new addition which was completed during the winter at a cost of some $42,000 is to provide much-needed, proper storage for valuable papers and artifacts plus making available adequate working space for preparation of displays and for preservation of this important material. About half of the required $42,000 will come from existing funds with $20,000 the goal of the present campaign.

The Museum and its collections are part of the heritage of our Town. We are indeed fortunate that many years ago some members of our community had the foresight to assemble and to preserve this priceless bit of history. Now it is our turn to shoulder the responsibility. We need your pledge!

EXCERPTS FROM MRS. CHARLES HAMLIN'S "MATTAPOISETT CHRONICLES" (1907)

In connection with her research for the Mattapoisett Visual History Project, Bea Johnson has been enjoying Mrs. Hamlin's comments, and shares some with us.

One of the worries of the Executive Committee of the Mattapoisett Improvement Association has been what to do about the pit on Water Street on part of what is now Shipyard Park. The pit was the old foundation of the County House Hotel which burned down in 1857. The owner wanted to sell this piece of property and had the idea that the purchaser would be able to use the foundation and so he would give a better price for it. The Association had offered to fill it and level it off as the important archway for the celebration -- to be illuminated by the new lights to be placed across Water Street where Barstow Street joined it. He refused to allow us to fill it. Finally, Mrs. Francis E. Bacon managed in some way to get his permission to let her have a temporary screen of cedars put on the street side of the pit. We hoped no inquisitive visitors would look behind the screen as in spite of the owner's wish that nothing should be thrown into the pit -- it was just a dump. One could see a bed spring and mattress sticking up and tin cans, ashes and trash too.

Mrs. Bacon, a summer resident, was deeply interested in the town and she painted two sketches for the arch. On one side the picture was a whaler under full sail and on the other side was a whaler under bare poles. In addition, Mrs. Bacon painted the sign of Metacomet-King Phillip, with hand held out in welcome. The iron work which holds it has an arrow pointing up - also the dates -- 1857 - 1907.

This sign was hung on the flagpole at the Town Hall and was taken down every Winter by Miss Stackpole who constituted herself the custodian of King Phillip. She had it varnished and kept in order.

Barbershop Singing

The New Bedford Chapter of The Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America", S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., will conduct a guest night Thursday, June 6th, at 7:30 p.m. at the Coast Guard Auxiliary Building, Middle Street, Fairhaven, just south of the Skipper Motor Inn.

Admission is free to anyone who loves to sing and can carry a tune. Present chorus members range in ages from 16 to 90. If you are anywhere in between you will no doubt fit in. One of the chapter's younger quartets, "The Whaling City Connection", will be auditioning for an opening in their quartet for a bass singer. However, if a baritone wants to try out they can accommodate him by switching parts, especially if he is in the high school or college age group.

Refreshments will be served plus some special entertainment, or as the old song goes, "The Best Things in Life are Free".

Speaker CDR. C. Leonard Newbert, USNR contrasted the difference between the Communist world and the free world with this question, "Did you ever hear of anyone trying to jump the Berlin wall to escape to East Germany?" He gave a thoughtful analysis of our role in Central and South America where he said U.S. vital interests are at stake. Elements hostile to our system are now engaged in a mission of conquest in the region south of the United States. He said that we have a legitimate and necessary role in the outcome of this struggle if our security is to be maintained.

The Old Hammondtown Band stepped into the gap left by the failure of the Old Rochester Band to make their scheduled appearance. Old Hammondtown performed excellently. A slight delay was necessary at the beginning of the program when Melissa Gregoire received a crash course of instruction on the playing of Taps.

OLD HAMMONDTOWN BAND PLAYED FOR CEREMONIES

SPACE RESERVED FOR THE OLD ROCHESTER REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL BAND, FEATURED ON THE PROGRAM FOR 2 PIECES. THE BAND DID NOT APPEAR NOR DID ANY MESSAGE ARRIVE. THE OLD HAMMONDTOWN BAND TOOK OVER ALL BAND DUTIES AND PERFORMED EXCELLENTLY. THE 4 CHEERLEADERS FROM OLD ROCHESTER MARCHED IN THE PARADE.

SELECTMAN JOHN DeCOSTA, WHO ORGANIZED THE MATTAPOISETT PROGRAM, IS SHOWN AS HE GREETED THE SPECTATORS AND INTRODUCED THE REV. DON E. STANLEY WHO LED THE ASSEMBLY IN PRAYER.

She played that very touching part of the program like a veteran. These youngsters have always delighted the assembly. This Memorial Day they not only pleased but they made all very proud by doing the difficult on short notice and very well.

Sad Note

Editorial, DCJ

No group of supporters is more concerned or generous than the people who support education at Old Rochester Regional High School. The ORR Band has received a fair share of financial and personal support of this same group. Not much is asked in return. In fact, one appearance per year is the major return on a major investment. The pitiful remnant of 18 ORR band members who marched and played in the Marion parade dwindled to nothing at the Mattapoisett ceremonies as no one showed up to honor a commitment made more than a month before. To compound this failure, no one had the courtesy to call the Legion organizer of the program, Selectman John DeCosta, to inform him that their scheduled obligation would not be met. This non-show had to be found out by confirmed rumor only minutes before the ceremonies were to begin.

In the business world, the world of adult responsibility, dependability and courtesy are vital factors in day-to-day involvement. All the expensive education is not worth a thing if an individual does not keep a pledged word or commitment. Courtesy is the basic ingredient in the daily contact between customer and representative. It is important to a successful life.

It is very sad to note that these key building blocks of character are missing from a band so close to adult responsibili-

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR

Recently International Adoptions, Inc. had its first annual fund raising effort and we are most thankful to the people of Mattapoisett who came up with a very unique way of raising funds for our organization.

Jim Rogers at the Village Styling Shop raffled off a cabbage patch doll and, due to the popularity of these dolls, was successful in raising a significant amount of money which was subsequently donated to our agency.

It's because of people like those in Mattapoisett that children waiting for adoption in many foreign countries will receive medical care, equipment, food, clothing, and professional counseling.

We would like to sincerely thank all those people in Mattapoisett who were involved in helping our agency.

of their interest and have received letters from the Historical Society and the Garden Club expressing their hope that the hospital will be able to restore the Homestead.

The first priority is to determine the cost of restoration, demolition or building of office space to take care of the personnel formerly housed in the Homestead. To this extent we have engaged architects, structural engineers and contractors to provide estimates. They are presently at work and, barring complications, we expect their reports over the next few weeks. We do know that the barns must come down because they were so severely burned that they are in danger of falling down and thus constitute a safety problem. They will be razed in the near future.

Once we receive the estimates, the Board of Trustees of the hospital will weigh the alternatives available to us.

We thank all who have helped during this time for their kind support. We will let

"Hop" Against Dystrophy

The pre-schoolers at the Holly Grove Nursery School in Mattapoisett certainly did their part in the on-going fight against muscle destroying diseases.

On April 4th and 5th the students, under the direction of instructors Donna Anderson and Janet Muldoon, participated in a "Hop Along" to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Students hopped up and down with their healthy muscles in order to help those children and adults whose muscles are weak. The children collected money for the total number of hops completed on the 4th and 5th of April.

Approximately $527. was raised by these local pre-schoolers. The funds will be used to continue providing the medical and orthopedic aids necessary to the daily living of MDA's clients in southeastern Massachusetts.

CONTACT LENS PROBLEMS?

Are you one of the growing numbers of past or present unsuccessful contact lens wearers? Or have you been told that you couldn't wear contact lenses because you have astigmatism, need bifocals, or just weren't a good candidate? Well, we don't believe it, and you probably don't either! With today's modern lens materials and advanced lens designs, there are very few prescriptions that cannot be filled with contact lenses. Whether you are interested in gas permeable, daily wear soft, tinted soft, astigmatic soft, bifocal hard or soft or the newer extended wear lenses, we would be more than happy to discuss your individual contact lens needs with you.

For a limited time, we are offering an initial no charge, no obligation consultation to previous unsuccessful contact lens wearers, or those who would like to know if they are suitable contact lens candidates.

If you are sincere about wanting to look and feel younger while successfully wearing contact lenses, we urge you to call us today at 992-EYES or 992-3937 for your no charge consultation.

Remember, you don't have anything to lose except your heavy eyeglasses.

viata. "I'm very excited about this opportunity and just hope that I have a great training camp. I know as a free agent that I can't have a bad day but I'm confident in my abilities as a football player."

Posiviata impressed the Montreal coaching staff with both his speed and pass-catching abilities. He was one of the faster players in the tryout camp -- running a 4.57 and a 4.58 in the two 40-yard dashes. He was also impressive with his one-on-one pass routes and ability to catch the ball in traffic.

Last season Posiviata was one of the top receivers in New England small college football when he helped lead the Plymouth State football team to a perfect 10-0 regular season record and a trip to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

He led the squad with 47 catches for 893 yards and scored 13 touchdowns. Posiviata averaged 19 yards per catch and also rushed five times for 85 yards (17.0 average) while also converting a 73-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He finished his career with 96 receptions for 1648 yards and 26 touchdown receptions -- placing him second on the all-time New England college football list behind former Baltimore Colts' receiver Freddie Scott of Amherst. "Posi" also hauled in six passes for 96 yards in the NCAA Playoff game at Union College.

Review: "A Hatful of Rain"

at The Gateway Playhouse

by David B. Boyce

Wareham's Gateway Playhouse opened its 13th season May 25th with a production of Michael V. Gazzo's drama, "A Hatful of Rain".

Produced on Broadway in the mid-1950's, Gazzo intended to expose the then emerging social problem of drug addiction among the urban working class. By today's standards however, and in light of the scores of plays, movies and television shows addressing this still plaguing issue, Gazzo's play now seems heavy-handed. Long expository passages, meant to extend the dramatic impact and to unveil the shady types who exist in the twilight milieu of pushers and users, now appear as glimpses into a diarama of a sociological museum. Simply put, while its message is certainly relevent, its method is dated.

Viewed as a period piece, the Gateway production in the hands of Santiago Gonzalez does carry an impact of gritty realism. With his acutely tuned eye for detail, Gonzalez is sometimes thwarted by the material. More importantly however, he brings great insight to the overall production, growing up, as he did, in New York's lower east side. He's also succeeded in eliciting some fine performances from his actors.

Briefly, the story is that of Johnny Pope, a soldier returned from an unstated conflict, presumably Korea, in which, due to an unexplained illness or injury, he has been addicted to morphine. He's successfully overcome the first habit, but has now again become its slave.

Living in New York's lower east side with his pregnant wife Celia and brother Polo, Johnny hasn't been able to hold a job and is under the constant threat of paying for his daily $40. habit. Wife and visiting father are unaware of Johnny's condition, though Celia is most sensitive to her husband's changing moods.

Michael Gulizia, in only his second ever stage appearance, walks away with the acting plaudits. He is most convincing as the macho Johnny, saddled with a situation beyond his control. He wants desperately to do right by the vulnerable Celia, but he's equally married to morphine and its calling is the more demanding. Gulizia brings an elegance and a forceful morality to a character who clearly despises his dependence, but is inextricably caught in his web.

His outrages and recriminations are handled with equal skill in a role that demands swift emotional shifts. Gulizia has a mesmerizing, almost feline presence that collapses in shattering fragments during the scenes of withdrawal. Those moments are electrifying and wrenching.

Sandee Freitas, as Celia, gives a carefully modulated performance. From the opening curtain her suspicion is strongly felt. She's a yearning woman, subliminally a hot-bed of sensual longing, yet untrusting and standoffish. It's no wonder, what with Johnny playing her emotions like a yo-yo, but there's a reserve in her portrayal which restrains a full venting of her confusions. At the play's denouement she is the epitome of hopeful strength, standing stately in her firm resolve, as Johnny succumbs to the wracking spasms of withdrawal before her. Ms. Freitas is a fine foil for Guilzia. It is their chemistry together that gives the production its power, succinctly displaying the play's central themes of pathos and conviction.

As Johnny's father, Gino McCarthy turns in a strong performance, though occasionally difficult to hear. His callous treatment of his sons is thoroughly believable. McCarthy is especially effective when his braggart's facade is fractured by the reality of Johnny's addiction. Tenderly rocking his son's trembling body, with Ms. Freitas lending support, the three form a heart-rending pieta. McCarthy's portrayal of broken spirit glistened from the stage as tears streaked his fallen countenance.

Michael Campitelli makes his debut as the drug dealer, "Mother". Concealed behind dark glasses which effectively detach his character, Campitelli evokes the nasty ma-lignance of "Mother's" trade. He treats his clients with the careless disregard of a sadistic slave owner. His is an impressive performance and an auspicious debut.

Michael Hall, as brother Polo, is at his best in a showcase scene with Celia, in which he confesses his love of her. But his talents don't mesh well with Gulizia or McCarthy in their scenes. He's a capable actor, but he seems miscast, unconvincing as a cynical though caring brother or repentant son. His face doesn't betray much expression and since the role calls for a personality virtually shredded with conflicting moral stances and seething with frustrated passions, his interpretation seems pale and wan contrasted to the other lead players.

Among the minor characters, Santiago Gonzalez, Raymond David Cardoza, Kim Smith Auger and Kenneth Matthews each turn in creditable performances with Gonzalez most engaging as a junkie with only a vestige of decency in his drug-riddled soul. Cardoza is quite menacing as one of "Mother's" henchmen, deftly wielding a switchblade. Ms. Auger's sluttish Putski, a fallen society girl, could have had more fun with the role, jumping in whole-hog with decadent abandon. Matthews easily assays his cameo as another of "Mother's" goons.

Technical problems became bothersome gnats as lighting cues were often missed, or late. The 50's rock'n'roll music, employed as scene preludes and entre' acte segues were a good idea, but too consciously chosen. In a scene's end, when Johnny leaves Celia to wander the streets in search of a fix, suddenly Elvis wafted in with "Are You Lonely Tonight?" They became an obvious gilding of the lily. Mr. Cardoza's set is spiced with homey touches that effectively evoke the right style, though the hallway grafitti is overstated to the point of distraction.

Mr. Gonzalez's decision to insert but one intermission, after being seated for nearly two hours, could conceivably bring calls of audience-abuse. Despite these problems, "A Hatful of Rain" remains an evening of involving theater, ending on a note of hope and rehabilitation. It still stands as a forceful indictment of the living hell that is the junkie's desperate existence.

Repeat performances will be staged June 7, 8, 14 and 15, with a curtain at 8:00 p.m.

event also marks the 50th anniversary of the three bridges spanning the Cape Cod Canal. The Bourne, Sagamore and Railroad Bridges were first opened to traffic on June 22, 1935. A ceremony in honor of the anniversary of the bridges will be sponsored by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at 11 a.m. at the gazebo in Buzzards Bay Park by the railroad bridge and railroad station.

The day's activities will kick off at the gazebo at 10:30 a.m. with a band concert by the 18th U.S. Army Band, sponsored by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. Afternoon activities include a performance by the 215th Army Band, Mass RANG, at the gazebo from 1 to 3 p.m. Ceremonies commemorating the tri-county 300th anniversary will be held at 3 p.m. at the gazebo.

Activities in the Cape Cod Canal begin at noon when boats representing yacht clubs and ports in Plymouth, Barnstable and Bristol Counties begin to cruise through the canal. Event organizers expect nearly 300 boats to cruise in company during the afternoon.

A ranger-led 14-mile bike hike along the canal, sponsored by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, also begins at noon. The ride, which is open to the public, begins and ends at the Railroad Bridge next to Buzzards Bay Park and travels on the Cape Cod Canal North Service Road.

Dig Safe

"THINKING OF DIGGING? CALL FIRST."

That's the advice of New England Telephone Public Relations Manager Sandy Williams who says that Massachusetts state law requires anyone who excavates on public or private property must notify utility companies at least 72 hours before digging, except in an emergency.

An organization called "Dig Safe" makes that notification easy by providing a single point of contact through a toll-free number --- 1-800-322-4844.

Officially known as Dig Safe System, Inc., the organization is comprised of and funded by utilities in the state such as the gas, electric and telephone companies.

"After receiving notification of an excavation," says Williams, "'Dig Safe' notifies its member utilities, who dispatch field personnel to mark the sites where underground facilities exist.

"This not only saves the expense of repairing damaged utilities -- which is borne by those responsible for the damage -- but prevents telephone and power outages as well as potentially hazardous gas leaks."

So be safe, and call "Dig Safe" before you dig.

HISTORIAN TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL MEETING

John J. McDonough of Potomac, Maryland, manuscript historian for the Library of Congress, will speak at the June 15th annual meeting of Descendants of Whaling Masters, Inc. at the Wamsutta Club in New Bedford.
